

Antisemitism Education Zoom Workshops

These interactive workshops help you to discuss what antisemitism is and what it isn't.

Allegations of antisemitism against political activists have become a feature of public life. Many of these allegations are hotly contested. As a result, there is confusion and uncertainty about what can be said without being seen as racist.

We help participants in our workshops to express and clarify in a safe space their views on antisemitism, Israel, Palestine and Zionism. The scope for differing and conflicting interpretations of antisemitism and Israel/Palestine can be seen in this image.

Is this antisemitic?

In the workshops we encourage participants to ask questions, express their ideas and gain confidence in engaging with others on racism and other forms of discrimination.

Our next Zoom workshops are on:

Monday 6th November 7pm to 9pm

Wednesday 15th November 7pm to 9pm

What participants say about our workshops

I particularly like the way you contextualised antisemitism within wider concepts of 'discrimination and inclusion'.

It was a very necessary and useful workshop since the issue of antisemitism and the way it is being discussed and used is so toxic ...

Very enlightening and I felt secure that I could express my opinion in a non-judgemental atmosphere
